SCHOOL NEWS

TWO pupils from YWJS have put in an amazing effort helping to raise over £400 for a new musical hub in Baildon.

Thea and Sienna sang 100 songs between them over seven days, morning, noon and night and in the process helped their music teacher Melody Reed set up Music Box - Inspiring Voices CIC, a new creative hub in Baildon.

To find out more about their venture and to sponsor them, have a look at the article in the Telegraph and Argus here

Well done girls!

YWJS VE 80 celebrations were a huge success thanks to everyone involved! Ms Johnson, the main organiser of the super event in school last Thursday explained what happened on the day: "We watched a WW2 production about life during the war, all classes carried out their own VE day activities such as making medals, learning the lyrics to 'We'll Meet Again' and creating VE Day bunting.

"We had a fabulous magician in the hall for some 'traditional entertainment' which really had us all laughing, and we enjoyed a whole school street party together.

"Thank you to parents for sending food in and to the children for looking fabulous in their red, white & blue and 1940s outfits! It was a very memorable day!"
