SCHOOL NEWS

A HUGE CONGRATULATIONS to Scarlett Thompkins from Year 5/6 who won the Aireborough Rotary Club's Young Writer Junior Section 2024/25 competition. Here she is receiving her certificate and cash prize -

Her excellent story on the theme of "Wonderful Water" will now go through to the Rotary Club's District final. Best of luck Scarlett!

There were over 60 entries from schools in our area for the competitions Rotary GB&I ran, as John Kitching from Aireborough Rotary explained: "Thank you for supporting Rotary's competitions this year, we had 67 entries over our 3 competitions (Writer, Artist and Photographer) to judge, the calibre of entries was very high, making judgement very difficult.

"As you are aware Scarlett now moves on to the District final and my fingers are crossed for her."

DID you get a new phone for Christmas or have you moved house recently? Make sure to let the office know about any new updates so we can keep your contact details up-to-date. Contact 01132503395 or office@yeadonwestfieldjuniorschool.co.uk

ON MONDAY 3rd February there will be a presentation in assembly about Prickly Pigs Hedgehog Rescue based in Otley, school is collecting tins of cat food to donate to the rescue on the day. Please bring your donations into your class. Thank you!

THE SEND provision at YWJS is still looking for donations, if anyone has any of the following to spare, please drop off at reception -
Heavy duty crates, Duplo, Playmobile people, dressing up clothes, KS1 reading books and Plastic food.

PLANS are afoot to launch a Musical Theatre Class at school on a Wednesday. It will be £48 for the term. A letter was sent home on Friday, please fill out and return for all those interested.
