Mrs P's Work of the Week

Due to school trips and breaking for Half Term there will be no awards this week.

PUMPKIN CARVING COMPETITION

There was a wonderful response to this year's competition with lots of entries adorning tables in the canteen on Monday October 21st. Each class came through the hall to see the entries all lit up, with curtains closed. Well done to everyone! Here are some photos from the display -

NEWS IN BRIEF

THERE were over 100 entries for the Halloween drawing/colouring competition! Everyone that entered did an amazing job and Marcus had real difficulties picking one winner from each class, but after much deliberation the winners were -

| | |
|----------------|----------------|
| 3L - Annabelle | 5/6A - Elsie |
| 3B - Grace | 5/6G - Alfie S |
| 4I - Frankie | 5/6H - Lucy H |
| 4K - Max P | |

Well done to everyone for all your hard work and hopefully the winners will enjoy their treat bags!

THANK you to everyone who contributed to the Harvest Festival 2024 everything was delivered, in the week before Half Term, to the combined Food Pantry between the Infants and Junior School. The Food Pantry is there to help families from both schools.

THE children welcomed a visit from Aireborough Rotary Club this week, when they were told about the work the organisation does to help eradicate polio across the world. As part of the celebrations of World Polio Day, which takes place on October 24th each year, the club also presented the school with some crocus bulbs to plant in the school grounds. Look out for them next Spring when they should make a lovely show in the garden area in front of the Pavilion, with their beautiful purple heads. The Rotary Club call the display 'Purple for Polio' as the flowers remind members of the children's fingers, which are dipped in purple dye once they have received the vaccine.

THE Festival of Play is a collection of playful activities taking place over the half-term. Everyone is encouraged to let their playful side out this half term, and take part in #leedsplayfest! Highlights of the week include: Once Upon a Nightmare: Twisted Tales Unveiled at Lotherton Hall; Petrifying Poisons at Thackray Museum of Medicine and Mini Playboxes at Leeds Libraries.
