1	anonymous	An amazingly creative and fun way to learn. Georgie has enjoyed the past two weeks very much. She's talked about little else. Thank you for making this experience for the them.
2	anonymous	I am very impressed with the quality of work and very happy my daughter is part of such a wonderful school. The effort staff puts in is heartwarming. Thank you all so much for creating lovely memories for us.
3	anonymous	From a fellow professional in this area of work, it has been amazing to see! I have been showing people at my school how amazing it is (unfortunately i didn't get to see it first hand due to working). If you have any advice or could tell me how you have done it, I will pass it on to my school, as it had been an amazing opportunity for the children! Well done to you all
4	anonymous	I thought it was fantastic. Hopefully there will be similar events. It was a credit to the school.
5	anonymous	Isobel has thoroughly enjoyed the event. I would really like to thank the staff for all their hard work making this happen for the children. It is very worth while.

6	anonymous	It was a great idea to help bring history to life
7	anonymous	I unfortunately couldn't make it but after seeing the pictures and discussing with the kids all I can say is wow and well done!!
8	anonymous	I feel it was well put together and an exciting way to learn and understand the history by pretending to be there instead of watching a clip of it. Thank you
9	anonymous	A lot of time and effort gone in to it and was really enjoyable to look round. The children thought it was great .
10	anonymous	This was absolutely incredible for the children, all the staff are an absolute credit to the school and i feel very very lucky that my daughter gets to experience all this
11	anonymous	I looked at the information on the website because I couldn't come into school to see it but Michael talked about it a lot- he brought home things he'd done like the soap carving and told me about how he had had lessons in there- he liked the different zones and seeing other aspects of history- for him it was especially good because he is a hands on learner and seeing and doing really engages him so he has got a lot from this- thank you
12	anonymous	We thought it was absolutely brilliant, Daniel didn't stop talking about it and it was clear he'd learnt a lot from the experience. Well done!
13	anonymous	It was very inspiring Charlie loved it.thank you to the teachers
14	anonymous	What a great way to make learning fun, Daniel loved it and it was great to come and see it
15	anonymous	We visited it in when my child who was in year 6 was in yr 2 that was the last time you did one ...it was fantastic then and I liked this year was a different theme and creation again . The children are so enthused by it all and talk a lot about it when home from school. I was really impressed with how creative and real it all felt very impressive
16	anonymous	Thank you to all of the teachers that made it happen! Charlie was buzzing when he came home from school that day- definitely making memories that will stay with them forever. Thank you!
17	anonymous	Owen said the cave area was amazing and really felt like you were in cave. ve.
18	anonymous	This is the second hall event we've been part of (one for each child). Both were brilliant and really inspired our children's learning (Libby still talks about the earthquake scene and I suspect Charlie will talk about his stone age experience for years to come too). Thank you for thinking outside the box and making learning fun.

19	anonymous	My husband visited this with Thomas. Thomas talked non stop about this and really enjoyed this learning enviroment!!! As a teacher myself I understand the importance of an enabling envieoment which allows children to explore and extend their current knowlege. My husband was super impressed a brilliant effort and thank you!!!
20	anonymous	Thank you, such great time, organisation and effort must have been given towards this experience. I'm sure this event is something our child will have great memories of, when they look back on their time at WJS. They've been talking about their history learning more often at home too!
21	anonymous	Really well done, my daughter was came home telling us all about it. My son loved visiting from the infants too.
22	anonymous	This was such an exciting event. Aidan was thrilled and enjoyed telling me all about it. My younger son also got to experience the Horrible Histories Hall when the Infants school was invited to attend, and he loved it!
23	anonymous	Erin came home very excited to tell us about the event.
24	anonymous	Just a huge thank you to all the staff and helpers for putting in the effort, it was magical and such a surprise! It felt like being taken back in time.
25	anonymous	It was a great idea, it brought enjoyment into the curriculum and gave a greater understanding of the topic. The children were so excited to go in.
26	anonymous	As a teacher myself, this is such a wonderful thing to see. It really made the topics covered come to life, Isla loved the experience and is still spoken about now at home. A huge well done, for such an amazing effort from all the staff for our school community. I have shown you off in my staff room. Well done to all.
27	anonymous	I was blown away when I was lucky enough to see it in person. It was absolutely brilliant & creative. The work, time & effort that has gone into it was phenomenal. Well done all, it's definitely something to be proud of. The children absolutely loved it, as did I, thanks for everyone's hard work
